

What is Coaches Time Out?

Coaches Time Out is a weekend event designed for coaches of any sport, age or gender; married or single. We know that a coach's influence is powerful. More than anyone else, high school and middle school coaches are forming and informing the youth in this country. CTO is a conference that gives these coaches the opportunity to recharge their spiritual batteries, connect with their spouses and peers, and sharpen their tools for both coaching and ministry. CTO exists to invest in the lives of coaches so they can, in turn, invest in the lives of their athletes. Coaches Time Out is a ministry of Pro Athletes Outreach, where pros and pro couples from the NFL and MLB have accepted the challenge to build up and encourage high school coaches in acknowledgement of their massive potential influence on student athletes, and gratitude for the influence experienced directly by these same pros.

SPEAKERS

Steve & Amy Hagen

Steve recently joined Lake Oconee FCA after a 30+ year coaching career. He and his wife Amy and their four children have been in the NFL for the last eleven years coaching with the Cleveland Browns and the New York Jets. Prior to those coaching opportunities Coach Hagen coached at Notre Dame, North Carolina, Cal, Illinois, Fresno and Nevada.

"After thirty three years of coaching full-time we heard the call to join FCA and give back to the Coaches, Athletes and communities that have given so much to us. We have coached football from California to New York City and now it's time to share the love of Christ that has carried us along the way. Dr. Billy Graham once said this a while back and it will always hold true, "A coach will influence more people in a year than the average person will in a lifetime." We believe that to be true and that is why we are teaming up with Fellowship of Christian Athletes to influence Coaches, Athletes and communities for Christ."

Zac Woodfin

Graduated from UAB in 2004 with a Bachelor's in Exercise Science. Following a college career in which he became UAB's all-time leading tackler (372 stops), he was signed as a free agent by Green Bay (2005).

Zac later signed with the Baltimore Ravens and spent two seasons with the organization before a stint in the World Football League and with the Houston Texans. He was then hired as a performance specialist at Athletes' Performance in Los Angeles, working with many clients who played for various organizations in the NFL, NBA, MLB, as well as Olympic athletes. Zac spent three seasons with the Green Bay Packers as assistant strength and conditioning coach, before accepting the position at UAB, where he helped the Blazers improve from 2-10 in 2013 to 6-6 in their final season as a program (2014). He was named the FootballScoop 2014 Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Zac is the Strength and Conditioning Coach at The University of Southern Mississippi and is married to Fawn. They have two children: a son, Valor, and a daughter, Violet.
